International Business - International Relations and Global Affairs

Study full time in our Intensive English Program while attending classes in International Business or International Relations and Global Affairs at Eckerd College.

Progress through the Intensive English Course and earn one or more International Business or International Relations and Global Affairs certificates through Eckerd College at no extra cost. Participants study full-time in our regular Intensive program while attending a qualifying class at Eckerd College. Students in Levels 107 through 112 may choose courses offered through the Eckerd Certificate Program. Select an Eckerd College course taught during the day and be excused from English classes at the Center. Select an Eckerd course taught in the evening and study at the Center for the full 30 hours per week.

Hours of Instruction
