Students will be able to send and receive emails while on campus. Students are encouraged to email family and friends. Your child should bring an international phone card or have a cell phone with international calling capabilities.

Students are expected to honor the house rules of their host family regarding curfews.

If your child is traveling alone and needs to make a transfer or layover during the trip, you may want to consider the child escort service. You must let ELS know in advance if you are using the airline’s Unaccompanied Minor Service.

Students should secure large sums of money and valuables (including cell phones, tablets and computers) at all times. ELS is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Host families provide breakfast and dinner each day and lunches on the weekends. When classes are in session, students will eat lunch in the campus cafeteria. Please plan at least US $150 per week for incidental spending money.
